DECLASSIFIED

Acting
Saturday
August 9, 1952

Tomlinson came to see me this morning and I talked to Jimmy (?) and others about a statement to be made by the Secretary commenting on the first meeting of the Schuman Plan High Authority, [redacted] to take place in Luxembourg tomorrow under the presidency of Jean Monnet.

Messrs. Matthews, Riddleberger, Bonbright and myself had a [redacted] talk last night about the character of our representation to the High Authority.

John Hightower came to see me this morning, chiefly concerned [redacted] how things are going in Iran.

Tonight, we had a buffet supper with Helen Kirkpatrick, Anita McLean, Ethel Garrett, Hank Byroade, Bob and Jane Joyce, Tommy Thompson, Charlie Biddle's son Jimmy, Eddie Miller, Frank Nash, and [redacted] others.

I left to meet the Secretary at 9:00 o'clock at the airport. The President was there in a driving rain.
